We have had for these last three Weeks a remarkable hot and dry Season; and, unless the Weather change, it is much to be feared the Harvest will fall

...ue, June 27. We continue still impatient to ...n to what Place the Spanish Fleet, now assembled at Carthagena, ... direct it's Course: in the mean while the Letters from Tunis represent the People there as being as much alarmed as their Neighbours.

Dublin, June 24.

Thursday last being the Day appointed for celebrating His Majesty's Birth-day, the Flag was displayed on Bedford Tower, the Great Guns at the Salute Battery, in His Majesty's Park the Phœnix, were fired three Rounds, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon there was a very numerous Assembly of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, of both Sexes, at the Castle, who appeared in extraordinary Splendor to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, before whom an Ode, set to Musick, was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies; and at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.
